Kelly Barnes

Our speaker today has spent a life focused on one thing... making each day a story other people will want to hear. As a student leader, elected official and entrepreneur, Kelly Barnes has applied the life skills and leadership lessons that he will share today. He promises today's message will make you laugh, make you think, and most importantly make you realize the power of your thoughts and actions.

People from all walks of life love hearing Kelly speak because he is the real deal. From the President of the United States to the high school class president, everyone who has had the opportunity to work with Kelly realizes he shares the right ingredients for success and fulfillment.

He is the recipient of the American FFA Degree, the highest degree bestowed by the National FFA Organization, and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity's "Man of the Year" Award. He also proudly serves as "The favorite Uncle" to Connor and Macey. He does all this while perfecting his skills as a rapper and master at Guitar Hero and Dance Dance revolution.

Ladies and gentleman please help me welcome Mr. Kelly Barnes
