

Our speaker today has traveled all over the United States and spoken to more than a million students, educators and business leaders helping them create great moments in their personal and professional lives.

As a student leader, elected official and entrepreneur, Kelly Barnes has applied the life skills and leadership lessons that he will share today. Kelly is a highly sought after speaker; all over the nation, because audiences know he will make you laugh, make you think, and most importantly make you realize the power of the things we do on a daily basis.

When he is not speaking, Kelly enjoys running marathons, fishing, watching baseball and cooking food for his family.

(Insert Organization Name) please make welcome Mr. Kelly Barnes!
